

Set R_{fb} to infinity and the two halves are ordinary real sigma-delta modulators. Connect them, and the noise transfer function stops being symmetric about zero frequency, which is what a near zero-IF receiver needs.